Felt So Wrong Feels So Right

When, as in the case of magic, the supernatural agent is an unconscious entity or is a supernatural creature of very limited capacity such as a demon or an impit will be assumed that each ritual must be performed with extreme precision because the supernatural agency lacks the capacity to know the intent of those performing the ritual and is unable to overlook errors in ritual performance... There is a substantial element of compulsion in interactions with small Gods, as well as with the creatures that are sometimes invoked by magic...Here, too, the rituals must be perfect; otherwise the supernatural agent will not find them binding.

Paw Prints in the Butter: A Clowder of Cats Curious and Comical

Mit der Kamera zweier Bekannter aus Deutschland. In advocating a black uprising, Walker offered a jarring, and for many a terrifying, alternative to complacent calls for colonization or the gradual amelioration of slavery and prejudice.

Hawthorne(Annotated)

Noch mal bitte. I picked this book up at the library first because the cover caught my eye and the summary sounded interesting.

One of the things I liked best about this book was how Poulson handled the matter of Dallas' accidental entry into the PI field. Burnished golden tincture as bright as the sun, armored majestically: Jaime Lannister no doubt but some might speculate this as Oberyn Martell due to the implication of "The Sun" but Oberyn in this prophecy is merely a pariah in a way, an odd indication nonetheless.
