Andshetoldhimwhathernotebookwas. Bollacher reads it as a prime example of Canetti's authoritative poetics, which aims to defend both the unbroken power of the poetic word that makes the world legible and the individual's right to favor a literal reading of one's life. After a brief discussion on theory, six project proposals and their solutions, suitable for B2-C2 level students, are presented. Emily escorted them around the premises, pointing out the various features offered that the other place could not equal. During some of the meetings, the team will develop common assessments or review the results of an assessment. Philosophers of religion.
