The beauty of creating a shrine is that the ideas and materials are seemingly endless and the process, like the grieving process itself, is completely individual. The first, perhaps the one he considered most important, was a letter of thanks to his father, signed by a number of Hungarian citizens. The words pouco, little, and muito, manyy much, when used as adjectives usually precede their nouns: poucas cousas, a few things; ha poucos dias, a few days ago; muito barulho, much noise. There were additionally several other non-military institutions which aimed to provide some relief for those impecunious nobles unable to educate their children.
