Jades Courting Danger: A Newly Weds #2 (A Newly Weds Series)

This issue's tied with Star Ranger 1 as the first Chesler-published comic book, This issue is notable for having original material back when that was the exception rather than the rule. If Hecuba dares not trust her highest instinct about her daughter, still less can the vulgar mind of the herald Talthybius, a man not without feeling, but with no princely, no poetic blood, abide the wild, prophetic mood which insults all his prejudices.

Music Business For Dummies

As per the Leckie review, I continue to be surprised that more like this has not already been written, specifically that a few decent works using the singular they aren't yet in existence, but am very pleased that what is around in terms of gender neutrality in fiction, such as this and [Written on the Body] has a great deal to recommend it in terms of style and feeling, merits that are obvious to plenty of readers who've never personally been bothered about gender or pronouns.
